5-Day Writing Workshop

Wednesday January 14 – Sunday January 18

The writing workshop is a FREE event hosted by the Rams Head Inn to support the local creative community.

Join this drop-in workshop to enhance your writing skills, learn techniques for engaging narratives, and receive constructive feedback from fellow writers and Jacqueline Christy.

While rooms, meals, and beverages are available for purchase, complimentary coffee, tea, and water will be provided during the retreat.

B I O

Jacqueline Christy is an award-winning writer/director, and founder of Access Theater. She has an MFA from the NYU Graduate Film Program and has received grants from the NYC Womens Fund, NY State Council on the Arts and the Sloan Foundation.

Her short films include Rehearsal (Austin Film Festival) & Other People (St Louis International Film Festival). Christy was selected by SHOOT magazine for their New Directors Showcase.

Magic Hour is her first feature film starring Miriam Shor, Sendhil Ramamurthy and Austin Pendleton. It has played many notable film festivals including Santa Barbara, Miami and the Hamptons Film Festival.

The film won multiple audience awards and earned Christy an Emerging Director Award and the Mary Pickford Female Filmmaker Award.
